SPAIN FORCED BY EUROPE

In a Mood to Grant Any Demand We May Make.

FINANCIERS USE PRESSURE.

Preparations For War Have Startled Foreign Nations.

A CONFLICT WOULD RUIN SPAIN.

This Declared to Be the Reason Why the Administration Is Now Confident That a Conflict Will Be Averted—That Government Let Know How Strongly Europe Opposes War, but No Attempt Was Made to Put the Screws On—The Dons Expected to Grant What the United States Asks Owing to the Maine Disaster—Also to Give Cuban Independence Without a Fight.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Statesmen close to the president declare that the administration's confidence that it can settle the Maine incident and Cuban question without a conflict with Spain is based on its knowledge of the tremendous pressure being brought to bear on Spain by the other European governments and by the great European financiers who hold Spanish securities in order to force her to meet the demands of the United States and thus avert war.

Confidants of the administration claim that our energetic and extensive preparations for war so startled Europe and had such a depressing effect on Spanish finances that for the first time it was realized by European statesmen and financiers the havoc that would be wrought if a war were actually entered on, which could have no other end than the crushing defeat of Spain and the exhaustion of her resources beyond the hope of restoration.

Awakened to a full realization of the danger threatened, which might involve serious embarrassment in the great money centers of the continent as an indirect result of Spain's ruin, the European powers political and financial, at once set afoot measures intended to force Spain to keep the peace at all hazards, for it seems to have been felt in Europe that the United States would not seek a conflict unless Spain was utterly dead to reason.

However, as is already known, means were taken to let this government know how strongly opposed to war the continental powers were, although no attempt was made to put the screws on. But through these attempts came to the administration the knowledge of the pressure that was being put upon Spain.

Since then much evidence has come to the administration, it is said, showing that Spain has yielded before the influences brought to bear on her and is now in a mood which convinces the administration that she will meet any demands made on her by us in consequence of the Maine disaster and will eventually consent to the independence of Cuba without a fight.

SOUTHERN PATRIOTISM AROUSED.

Bryan Praised War Preparations and Lee's Conduct in a Speech.

ATLANTA, March 16.—An audience of 10,000 greeted William J. Bryan when he appeared in the tabernacle here. They were thrown into a frenzy of enthusiasm when, in one of the speaker's climaxes, he referred to the readiness of Americans to meet a foreign foe who should attempt to land upon our shore. He said:

"Within the last two weeks we have had an illustration of the unity of the American people in front of any danger which was possible and probable. This danger they have met as one man, declaring their readiness to die in defense of their country. It so happened that the representative of the United States at Havana were the Confederate uniform. And yet Fitzhugh Lee has discharged his duty with such courage, such prudence, such patriotism that you cannot find in all the north land one man who would suggest his removal." Great cheering followed.

SOBRAL PRAISES THE PRESIDENT.

House and Two Newspapers to Blame For Feeling Against Spain.

MADRID, March 16.—Lieutenant Commander Sobral, the former naval attaché of the Spanish legation at Washington, in an interview at Barcelona on his arrival there, is quoted as saying he is convinced that President McKinley, who is a correct president, and the government of the United States, do not wish for war and will resist to the utmost the intrigues of the war party. Continuing, Lieutenant Sobral remarked:

"Thoughtful Americans also oppose war, which is solely desired by the adventurers and agitators who compose the jingo party. The majority of the house of representatives is composed of men without prestige and of little education, who regard politics as a trade and who would have already voted the jingo proposals if they had not encountered the strength of character of President McKinley, whose authority is dictatorial. The serious opinion of the country, composed of business men, dreads war with Spain, which they believe would be a veritable misfortune, as shown by the fact that the new Spanish squadron had hardly started for American waters when a panic seized all commercial and industrial centers.

"The jingo campaign is fomented chiefly by two American daily newspapers, whose insolent language is a positive shame to Americans.

"It is evident that the United States intends Spain shall be the actual declarer of war."

NAVAL REPORT THIS WEEK.

Cabinet Members Expect It—Have Their Eyes on More Ships in Europe, but May Not Get Them.

KEY WEST, March 16.—The Mangrove with the court of inquiry on board arrived to-day. Captain Sampson, president of the board assured a correspondent that the court can return to Havana if the divers or wreckers make discoveries that add to the stock of knowledge now gathered.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—"The general expectation of the members of the cabinet," said one of them after the meeting, "is that some report will be received during the present week from the court of inquiry examining into the cause of the Maine explosion. Yet," he added, "it would not be surprising to us if the report should be delayed for a longer time. We have nothing on which to base this hope that I know of, only the feeling seems general that what I have said will be the case. There is nothing at hand as yet to indicate what will be the nature of the findings of the court."

"Our time was occupied in a general discussion of the measures under way for the national defense, notably in regard to the acquisition of new vessels of war. We are keeping an eye on the two ships under construction for Chile and the Argentine republic, but it is not probable we can get them. If we cannot obtain the ships, it is a source of satisfaction to know that Spain will not be able to purchase them either."

NEW YORK, March 16.—A correspondent at Havana telegraphs that the report of the naval board of inquiry will be ready to forward to Washington in two or three days at the outside. A few little details of expert testimony are being carefully collected to wind up things, and the drawings and plans based on the divers' investigations are nearly finished.

The divers are only trying to verify the points already suggested by previous discoveries, and to take accurate measurements of certain important port plates of the wrecked cruiser and the twisted ram which, the correspondent asserts, lies in such a position as to prove that an outside force destroyed the battleship.

SOUTHERN CAVALRY OFFERED.

General Stoppelbein Writes a Letter. Also Praises the President.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Representative J. W. Stokes of South Carolina has received a letter from General Joseph L. Stoppelbein, commanding First brigade, South Carolina cavalry, in which he says: "The people of South Carolina stand ready and willing to shed their blood in defense of the Stars and Stripes, and if ever our people were united they are today. We know no factional or party lines when the honor of our country is at stake. As you know, I command the largest body of cavalry in the United States. My of command and I are at the services of the president, and while I understand that militia cannot be pressed into service for a longer period than 90 days, I now, through you, formally tender my services to the president in the volunteers for 90 months if need be.

"The people of South Carolina have explicit confidence in the wisdom of the president at this critical moment, and feel that he will do the proper thing."

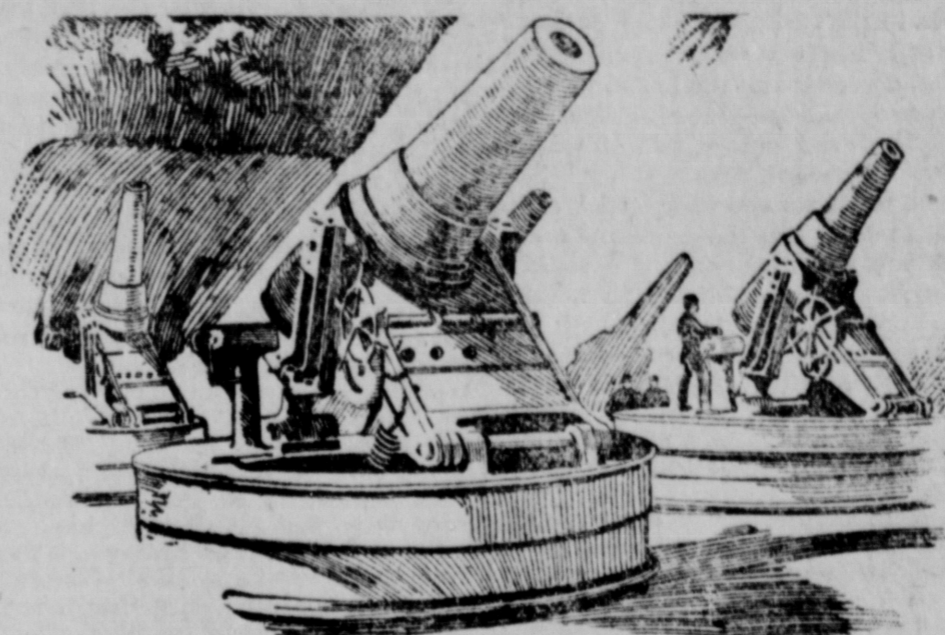

Mr. Stokes presented General Stoppelbein's letter to the president.

$2,500,000 FOR ORDNANCE.

An Allotment of Funds Made by Secretary Alger.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Secretary Alger has been enabled to make an allotment of funds from the appropriation of $50,000,000, which will greatly facilitate the work of the bureau. These bureaus had not been able to conclude any contracts for the procurement of war supplies, because no allotment had been made, but the ordinance bureau had given $2,500,000 and business went forward with a rush.

It is true that this sum is already mortgaged under provisional arrangements made during the past week, but with the assurance of more funds to come the work of the bureau is now moving rapidly.

TWELVE INCH COAST DEFENSE MORTARS.

Sixteen of these powerful 12 inch mortars are now mounted at Sandy Hook, near New York city, and similar batteries are in position at various seaports. They are mounted in deep pits, are invisible to an enemy and are designed to drop tons of projectiles on the deck of an attacking ship.

WAR ON SPAIN A CRIME

Such It Would Be on Our Part, Sagasta's Opinion.

STATEMENT EVIDENTLY INSPIRED

The View Expressed That We Should Stop Our Warlike Preparations, Pending the Elections in Cuba—Spanish Minister Talks to Day.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—A statement which is believed to reflect correctly the sentiment of the Spanish cabinet in the present emergency has been made by a gentleman intimately associated with Premier Sagasta and Senor Moret, minister of the colonies in the Spanish cabinet. It is not desired to give it the form of an official utterance, but rather an exposition from one whose opportunities for information are complete, on the views animating the ruling authorities of Spain. The statement is as follows:

"The elections in Cuba are about to occur and the government desires them to be as free as possible. Naturally, however, the insurrection will prevent many from voting and it is felt also that renewed insurgent activity coming at such a moment might jeopardize the successful working out of the autonomist plan. Moreover, the attitude of the United States in having a squadron so near Cuba, and the active war preparations in the United States are of a nature that may exert an influence against a fair expression of public will under the autonomist plan. It is thought that if the United States were sincere in its expressions of friendship to Spain, even if it thought that autonomy could not meet every expectation it should by friendly acts and not words, show this sympathy with the liberal regime inaugurated in Cuba.

"If the Washington government made known to the insurgents that it meant to have peace in Cuba and that peace in Cuba may be had with autonomic government under Spain, the insurrection would certainly die out. If later the Weyler party wanted to interfere, it would be time then for the United States to take action. That action would be then justifiable. Now to make war on Spain would be a crime, and for that crime to civilization and humanity the United States would be responsible."

The foregoing statement was called to the attention of Senor Polo De Bernabe, the Spanish minister, and his views on it requested, but he maintained diplomatic reserve after reading it carefully, and said it appeared to be given by one thoroughly conversant with the situation.

The Spanish minister called at the state department and had a two-hours' conference with Assistant Secretary Day. The minister came away looking highly gratified.

Senate Committee Votes Against a Formal Senate Investigation.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—The senate committee on naval affairs has had under consideration the resolution instructing it to make an investigation of the Maine disaster and decided, by a vote of 6 to 5, to postpone action for the present. This action was preceded by a sharp exchange of words between the advocates of immediate action and those who think the active investigation should be deferred in order to permit the administration full opportunity to press its own investigation through the naval board of inquiry.

It was decided to take steps to secure from the navy department all the information in its possession and this suggestion was adopted.

It is understood that the postponement was secured by Senator McEnery's joining with the majority of the Republicans and that Senator Chandler voted with the opposition for the immediate and independent inquiry.

Mr. Quesada's presence, under the circumstances as an honored guest, is very significant. It is a semi-official recognition of the Cuban republic."

"I have known that Vice President Hobart's sympathies were with the Cuban cause, and I am glad he has made that fact known in such a public manner."

FIVE NEW DRYDOCKS ASSURED.

House Committee May Also Agree to Build Ten Torpedoboats.

They are to be located at Portsmouth, N. H.; Boston, League island, near Philadelphia; Algiers, near New Orleans, and Mare island, near San Francisco.

It was stated that the committee may authorize the building of about ten torpedoboats and torpedoblast destroyers, costing about $1,500,000 for all.

Better Cannon Wanted.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Inspired by the war sentiment prevailing in many parts of the country, officers of state militia organizations have been inquiring of the war department as to allotments of arms, ammunition etc. There is an annual appropriation aggregating about $400,000 allotted among the militia of the several states according to their numerical strength. Later style artillery is wanted.

The Adkins bill prohibiting the making of contracts payable in gold was defeated in the house.

These bills were passed in the house: Senate bill by Mr. Sullivan, providing that members of boards of county visitors shall be paid actual expenses, not exceeding $50 per year.

PIGIRON PRODUCERS' POOL.

Bessemer Manufacturers in Cleveland, Mahoning and Shenango Districts Form a Combine.

CLEVELAND, March 16.—One of the biggest pools the country has ever known has been formed in Cleveland. All Bessemer pigiron producers in the Cleveland, Mahoning valley and Shenango iron districts are bound together by the combine. The only firm in these districts, it is officially stated, not included in the pool, is the Cleveland Rolling Mill company of this city.

Samuel G. Mather, a prominent iron man, said:

"The object of the meeting is not to form a trust. The manufacturers are in conference for the purpose of regulating the output of pigiron and influencing the prices of iron as far as possible for the better."

"All Bessemer pigiron manufacturers out of the Pittsburgh district are members of the association, the Cleveland Rolling Mill company being the only exception."

Another local man who attended the meeting said: "The pool will control the Bessemer market of the United States."

"A number of furnaces will be closed and at the end of the year profits will be divided."

"Prices will be advanced 50 cents per ton immediately."

Auxiliary Cruisers' Board Meeting.

NEW YORK, March 16.—The board for the inspection of auxiliary cruisers has met here in executive session. Clement A. Griscom, general manager, and James A. Senate bill by Mr. Wolcott, amending section 6709 so that final orders of a judge of common pleas court may be reversed or modified by a higher court.

House bill by Mr. Swingle, providing that domestic manufacturers of vinegar who brands his own product, not exceeding 12 barrels a year, "domestic cider vinegar," shall be exempt from having to analyze the same.

House bill by Mr. Stewart (Clark), declaring all trusts illegal.

These bills were introduced in the senate:

Senator Robertson, authorizing the acceptance of the bonds of safety and deposit companies as surety for judicial affairs.

Senator Robertson, to make it discretionary with the probate court to require bond from an executor when the testator expresses a wish that the executor serve without bond.

Senator Long, authorizing the incorporation of mutual companies in this state to insure valuables in shipment.

Senator Dodge, creating a commission, consisting of the governor, attorney general, judge of the supreme court, president of the senate and speaker of the house, to select a site for the contemplated new building and to erect it. The bill carries with it an appropriation of $400,000.

Senator Burke, that the standard of baking powder shall not be less than 14 per cent of carbonic acid and not less than 35 per cent of starch or flour.

Senator May, that foreign assessment companies shall comply with the same regulations as to the amount of capital, etc., as are imposed upon the home companies.

Senator Long, providing that municipal corporations which have no sinking fund commission can refund bonds at a lower rate of interest before maturity.

Senator Burke, to do away with the premium practice—the giving of prizes—by dealers to purchasers. The measure provides that it shall be abolished and provides a penalty of not more than six months' imprisonment or a fine of not more than $1,000 for failure to comply.

Senator Finck's Cuban resolution, demanding that the Monroe doctrine have force and vitality and the struggling Cubans their blood-bought liberty, was adopted unanimously by the senate.

Senator Wolcott's bill, requiring more exacting information from applicants for marriage license, passed the senate.

PIGIRON PRODUCERS' POOL.

Bessemer Manufacturers in Cleveland, Mahoning and Shenango Districts Form a Combine.

CLEVELAND, March 16.—One of the biggest pools the country has ever known has been formed in Cleveland. All Bessemer pigiron producers in the Cleveland, Mahoning valley and Shenango iron districts are bound together by the combine. The only firm in these districts, it is officially stated, not included in the pool, is the Cleveland Rolling Mill company of this city.

Samuel G. Mather, a prominent iron man, said:

"The object of the meeting is not to form a trust. The manufacturers are in conference for the purpose of regulating the output of pigiron and influencing the prices of iron as far as possible for the better."

"All Bessemer pigiron manufacturers out of the Pittsburgh district are members of the association, the Cleveland Rolling Mill company being the only exception."

Another local man who attended the meeting said: "The pool will control the Bessemer market of the United States."

"A number of furnaces will be closed and at the end of the year profits will be divided."

"Prices will be advanced 50 cents per ton immediately."

Auxiliary Cruisers' Board Meeting.

NEW YORK, March 16.—The board for the inspection of auxiliary cruisers has met here in executive session. Clement A. Griscom, general manager, and James A. Wright, second vice president of the International Navigation company, were present, and it is understood that the terms on which the government may secure the St. Louis and possibly the St. Paul, were discussed.

BRAVE JENKINS DEATH.

Officer Who Was With Him When the Explosion Occurred Writes to His Family.

PITTSBURG, March 16.—A letter has come from Lieutenant George F. W. Holman, navigating officer of the Maine, telling of the death of Lieutenant Friend W. Jenkins of Allegheny, who was in the explosion. The officers were sitting in the same room when the explosion occurred and the letter, which is addressed to Miss Jane Jenkins, a sister of the dead officer, tells of what took place afterward, thus:

"We all made for the door, and I am under the impression that Jenkins was ahead of me. In the darkness I could not be sure. I climbed up to the main deck and not through the door. Most of the men and officers were gathered on the poop and my attention was directed to lowering the remaining boats. The latter went out to pick up some of the men, and I thought that Jenkins was in one of them.

"You can imagine our distress when we found that two of our officers were missing, our beloved shipmate and friend, Lieutenant Jenkins and Mr. Merritt, an engineer officer. Although careful search has been made his body cannot be found, yet it seems hardly possible that he was one of the unidentified, for he was in uniform. I think that instead of going on deck Jenkins went either forward or aft, on the berth deck. My first impression was that he had gone to his room to obtain valuable papers in his possession as intelligence officer, but this seems unlikely now, as a careful search of his room has been made without results. My other impression regarding his going forward to the berth deck is based on the fact that when the explosion occurred his first idea was to go to the gun division.

"It is clear in my mind that he lost his life in an attempt to perform some duty which seemed paramount to all other things, even to his safety, and all glory to him for it."

CLEVELAND BACKS M'KINLEY.

Says Everybody Should Support the Government—He Desires Peace.

PRINCETON, N. J., March 16.—Former President Cleveland, in a firm and emphatic fashion, volunteered this statement:

"Though I have no wish to be interviewed, you may state for me that, in common with others, I think every patriotic citizen ought to loyally support the government during a period of trial like the present, no matter what exigencies may arise.

"I will also say that I hope the present difficulties will be settled without bloodshed. It is possible that an honorable way out will be found eventually and that there will be no war."

Will Rush Work on Rifles.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—A representative of the Winchester Arms company has been in conference with General Miles and General Flagler at the office of the bureau of ordnance of the army regarding rifles. No contracts were made, but the conference led to a full understanding. The representatives of the Winchester company stated that the present commercial demand, particularly that connected with the Klondike excitement, kept the company at its full capacity, but that government orders would be filled without reference to these private obligations.

Getting Ready New Torpedoboots.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Mr. Malster of the Columbia ironworks, at Baltimore, has notified the department that he will be able to turn over to it the torpedoboot Rodgers next Saturday. Mr. Herreshoff has been urged to hurry up work on a boat at Bristol.

Murdered in the Street.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Dennis J. Canty, formerly a clerk in the interstate commerce commission, and later a partner with Herman Van Senden, private secretary to Secretary Carlisle in the last administration, in the stock and grain brokerage business, has shot and killed George S. Rye, a speculator whose home is in the west, in front of the Ebbitt House, on First, near Fourteenth street. It is assumed that the killing grew out of some stock transactions.

Work of the House.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—The house agreed to consider the bill for the relief of the legal heirs of the victims and survivors of the Maine disaster as soon as the postoffice appropriation bill, which was taken up in the house, is out of the way. During the general debate on the postoffice bill members discussed various political questions.

Boy Murders a Boy.

CARROLL, Ills., March 16.—Perry Gardner enticed Will Rogers into an unoccupied building at Pulaski, Ills., and beat his brains out with a club. He then escaped. Both were aged 16. The former had a grudge against the latter.

Inheritance Tax Unconstitutional.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., March 16.—The supreme court, in an opinion by Chief Justice Gantt, decided that the inheritance tax law passed by the legislature in 1895 for the benefit of the state universities is unconstitutional.

services of General Rosecrans occurred at the cathedral today. Bishop Montgomery officiated. Several Confederate veterans were pallbearers.

THE NEW TRUNK LINE.

Within Ten Months Track Laying Will Commence—Lines That Will Compose It.

PITTSBURG, March 16.—The Post this morning says: Now that the surveys for the missing links between Akron and New Castle and New Castle and Butler and Punxsutawney have been completed and the necessary appropriations provided there is nothing remaining to interfere with the grand trunk line scheme between Chicago and New York, and it is confidently predicted that within 10 months the greater part of the grading will be finished and track-laying will be progressing.

With the Brice system, including the Lake Erie and Western, the Northern Ohio and other roads, which afford convenient connections to trunk lines west of Pittsburgh, trying to get a through eastern route, and the Philadelphia and Reading and the Lehigh Valley and the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, which are among the most important of eastern lines, lacking in direct western connections, trying to give them an outlet to the Mississippi river, the scheme assumes the appearance of a gigantic enterprise.

The new trunk line is to be composed of the Illinois Central, Chicago to Kankakee, 56 miles; the Findlay, Fort Wayne and Western, Kankakee to Fort Wayne, 140 miles; the same road, from Fort Wayne to Findlay, O., 78 miles, and the link from Findlay to Carey, 12 miles; the Northern Ohio, Carey to Akron, 107 miles; the Northern Ohio extension, Akron to New Castle, Pa., 70 miles; Allegheny Western, New Castle to Punxsutawney, 98 miles; Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh railroad, Punxsutawney to Clearfield, 45 miles; Beech Creek railroad, Clearfield to Williamsport, 104 miles; Philadelphia and Reading railroad, the great eastern trunk line, Williamsport to Tamaqua, 100 miles; Central of New Jersey, Tamaqua to Jersey City, 135 miles; total, Chicago to Jersey City, 945 miles.

The Buffalo, Rochester and Reading will reach Butler, and at that point make direct connection with the Pittsburgh, Bessemer and Lake Erie.

THE INTERSTATE BASEBALL LEAGUE.

Forfeits Put Up and Clubs Classed in Two Divisions.

SPRINGFIELD, O., March 16.—The Interstate Baseball League has met here and each club placed $550 in President Powers' hands as its forfeit. The league was divided into the western and eastern divisions. Grand Rapids, Fort Wayne, Toledo and Mansfield constitute the western division, and Dayton, New Castle, Youngstown the eastern division. The schedule was adopted for the season to open in the eastern division towns. The clubs all agreed to instruct their managers not to allow players to question any decision of umpires.

S. L. Nelson of Springfield and C. J. Strobel of Toledo were appointed a committee on transportation to make arrangements for all the traveling of the league during the season. The magnates were banqueted by the local club.

Imagination Cure.

Fuddy—Spleeney appears to be much improved in health lately.

Duddy—Yes, I cured him. I got him on to a scale the other day, and without his knowing it I managed to slip a 20 pound weight on the platform. When he saw how much he had gained, he began to be cured. In less than two days he was as well as ever he was.—Boston Transcript.

Silver Coinage Measure.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—The house committee on coinage, weights and measures has reported favorable the bill authorizing the coinage of subsidiary silver coin from bullion purchased under the Sherman act and also the recoining of damaged or worn subsidiary coin now in the treasury. A minority report was submitted by Messrs. Bland, Maxwell, Rodgeley, Cooper and Cochran.

The Hon. Mr. Jones Is Not a Congressional Candidate.

HE MAY ASK A RENOMINATION

To the Ohio Legislature, but He Has No Desire to Sit in the Halls of Congress, at Least Not When the Chances For Success
Are So Slim.

The announcement has been frequently made during the past few months that Hon. John P. Jones, state representative from Stark county, would be a candidate for congress before the next convention, but Mr. Jones does not now view the matter in that light. At present he has no desire to go to congress or be Mr. Taylor's successor.

The information comes to the NEWS REVIEW from a reliable source, and states that Mr. Jones recently made the statement to a number of friends. He said he might want a re-nomination for the Ohio house of representatives, but at present he was not a candidate in opposition to Hon. R. W. Taylor or any other man in the Eighteenth district.

The announcement is important because certain of the Democratic papers of the district have been encouraging Mr. Jones, hoping thereby to inject something of the Hanna-Bushnell controversy into the matter.

BETTER THAN EVER.

A Contented Woman Comes to the Grand
Next Friday Evening.

Of all the plays that playwright Charles Hoyt has turned out in the past, none has ever appealed more strongly to the masses than his "A Contented Woman," which is reported as having broken all records. There is an old saying that if you give a person what he wants, there will be no trouble in finding a ready market for it. "A Contented Woman" seems to be just what the people want. That is the reason why the theaters are tested everywhere it is presented.

"A Contented Woman" comes to us next Friday evening at the Grand, greatly improved, and to use the words of the advance representative, bigger, brighter and better than ever.

Improvements at Vanport.

The Cleveland and Pittsburgh station at Vanport is being extensively improved. The workmen that have been at the job will have it completed by Saturday. The painters' special car was taken there yesterday from Wells-ville, and they too will be done by Saturday.

CALLED THE YOUNG MAN

Who Went to Investigate the Water Department.

HE WORKED HARD FOR HOURS

When Clerk Gipner, Divining His Mission, Offered to Give Him Any Aid He Might Require, and Then Gave Him a Parting Blessing as He Left the Office.

The meanest man in town, a creature who can be used as a tool at a given price, backed by men who are fully as unscrupulous, but who do not appear on the surface, resolved to do Water Works Trustee Harris an injury if they possibly could. To this end they sent a young limb of the law to the office of the water works trustees, instructing him to ask that he be permitted to examine the clerk's books, in the hope that the clerk, as business men oftentimes do, might have made some entries, in connection with J. H. Harris, under the head of "sundries," and that the clerk might have paid out, in some instance, the ready cash, instead of paying by warrant. Every citizen of East Liverpool is cheerfully granted any legitimate information he may desire in connection with the water works office, and the legal luminary was accorded the same courtesy. He worried himself considerably in the examination of the books, going back for years, and finally uttered an exclamation showing that he was becoming weary in his self-imposed search, when he was affably informed, by the obliging clerk, that the research might be greatly facilitated if he were to resort to the "warrant book," which was then smilingly passed to him by the clerk, with the remark:

"We pay everything going out from this establishment by means of warrant, even to the most minute sums."

The legal light was profuse in his thanks, declared that the warrant book was the very essence of the matter his heart and mind were longing for, made an examination thorough and complete, found no shadow of opportunity for fault finding, and reported back to his PECULIAR employers that they were on the wrong trail and scent, that everything was according to Hoyle and Blackstone in the books of the water works trustees, and that they would be compelled to look elsewhere in case they desired to injure, either directly or by innuendo, Mr. J. H. Harris, and then retired from the service of his PECULIAR employers in disgust. Only this and nothing more. Selah. Turn on the light.

THE LIBRARY BENEFIT.

A Big Crowd Attended the Entertainment Last Night.

The benefit entertainment for the public library attracted a large audience to the Grand last night. An excellent program was carried out, and much amusement resulted when, after a great many claims had been presented, Uncle Sam showed the real national flower to be the kind that is put up in sacks.

The Vandersall children were the principal attraction, and were repeatedly encored.

CALLED THE YOUNG MAN

Who Went to Investigate the Water Department.

HE WORKED HARD FOR HOURS

When Clerk Gipner, Divining His Mission, offered to Give Him Any Aid He Might Require, and Then Gave Him a Parting Blessing as He Left the Office.

The meanest man in town, a creature who can be used as a tool at a given price, backed by men who are fully as unscrupulous, but who do not appear on the surface, resolved to do Water Works Trustee Harris an injury if they possibly could. To this end they sent a young limb of the law to the office of the water works trustees, instructing him to ask that he be permitted to examine the clerk's books, in the hope that the clerk, as business men oftentimes do, might have made some entries, in connection with J. H. Harris, under the head of "sundries," and that the clerk might have paid out, in some instance, the ready cash, instead of paying by warrant. Every citizen of East Liverpool is cheerfully granted any legitimate information he may desire in connection with the water works office, and the legal luminary was accorded the same courtesy. He worried himself considerably in the examination of the books, going back for years, and finally uttered an exclamation showing that he was becoming weary in his self-imposed search, when he was affably informed, by the obliging clerk, that the research might be greatly facilitated if he were to resort to the "warrant book," which was then smilingly passed to him by the clerk, with the remark:

"We pay everything going out from this establishment by means of warrant, even to the most minute sums."

The legal light was profuse in his thanks, declared that the warrant book was the very essence of the matter his heart and mind were longing for, made an examination thorough and complete, found no shadow of opportunity for fault finding, and reported back to his PECULIAR employers that they were on the wrong trail and scent, that everything was according to Hoyle and Blackstone in the books of the water works trustees, and that they would be compelled to look elsewhere in case they desired to injure, either directly or by innuendo, Mr. J. H. Harris, and then retired from the service of his PECULIAR employers in disgust. Only this and nothing more. Selah. Turn on the light.

The Vandersall children were the principal attraction, and were repeatedly encored.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O. WEDNESDAY, MARCH 16.

UNION PAPERS.
 All Union papers of East Liverpool are known to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above
 Union Label at the head of their columns.

POLITICAL leaders are a necessity;
 political bosses will hinder the success
 of any party.

It is probable the legislature will do its duty in at least one matter, since a movement is on foot to pass a resolution asking the navy department to name one of the new battleships Ohio.

If the legislature hopes to have a place in the history of Ohio it must hasten its work. When the weeks it has been in session are remembered, we cannot but think it woefully inefficient.

DON'T forget to vote next Saturday,
 if you are a Republican, and when you vote remember that East Liverpool cannot have a clean, honest administration of affairs if the schemes of the gang are carried out.

THE passage of the Blake bill simply means that East Liverpool takes a step backward. There was no excuse whatever for the measure, no explanation can be given the people. Every ward in the city is interested in the public schools, every ward should have its representatives in the board. Under the new arrangement it is possible for the board to be made up of representatives from but one ward.

GROVER CLEVELAND'S expressions of patriotism come with very poor grace from a man who employed a substitute and spent the bloody years of the civil war building political fences in and around Buffalo. He thinks now that every patriotic citizen should support the government "no matter what exigencies may arise," but it is safe to say that the stuffed prophet of Princeton would not be among the men who would shoulder a gun in defense of his native land.

NO CAUSE FOR CRITICISM.

Even the biased partisans who were bitterly denouncing President McKinley a few weeks ago, view the situation in a different light. They were angry because he refused to lose his head and order a fleet to bombard Havana, maintaining that if he was a true American there was but one course open for him.
 Now they know the president has done his full duty, maintaining the honor of the nation and preventing his own good name from being dragged through the mire. He has done what every sensible American would have him do.

GOOD LESSONS.

If the legislature is sincere in its desire to reform the primary elections of Ohio it can find abundant argument in support of its position. Political parties are selecting candidates for county and municipal offices, and from all parts of the state are coming complaints of trickery and fraud. Gangs are working to attain their own ends, and men who desire office are sure of not getting it if they chance to be outside of the influence of the rulers. It is not in one county but in many. The evil is showing itself more plainly every day. The will of the people is being defeated with a regularity that is as dangerous as it is sure of success.

Now is the time for the general assembly to act. It is too late for a law to do a great deal of good this year, but if the right measure is placed on the statute books at once, political affairs in Ohio will be different next year. The citizen who casts his vote at a primary election can then do it with some assurance of having it counted and placed to the credit of the candidate he desires to support.

NEWSPAPER MEN KNOW

But They Cannot Give It All to the Public

OR THERE WOULD BE TROUBLE

About the Vaulted Halls and Corridors of Ohio's Old Capitol—Some of the Causes
 Which Brought About the Investigation of the Lobby.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE]

COLUMBUS, March 16.—The work of the house committee investigating newspaper charges of corruption in the legislature and the lobby has brought into prominence one factor in legislative work that is seldom touched upon in public reports. That is the work of the newspaper correspondents and their relations to and influence upon legislation. There are some 20 newspaper men engaged in keeping the public informed of the doings of the general assembly and they represent the leading papers from all parts of the state. These men are constantly in close touch with the members of the legislature, and being experts in their business they keep well posted on all that is going.
 Now the newspaper man of average character is always the bitter foe of corruption and jobbery and the lobby has been an object of suspicion with the correspondents ever since it commenced its manipulations, early in the session.
 The lobbyists are always watched closely, and when they began boldly to attempt to peddle out legislation, some of the newspaper men thought that it was time to call a halt, and they printed a few of the things they knew about its work.

Newspapers never can print all they know, but in this case enough was made public to create a large sized sensation, and while some members were quaking
 in their leather covered chairs, others became highly indignant and demanded an investigation. A resolution calling for an inquiry was adopted by the house and a committee was started upon the work of investigation.

First of all the committee called upon some of the correspondents to tell what foundation they had for stories which had been printed. Here developed the newspaper man's peculiar position. Every one of them had plenty of evidence on which to base allegations which had been made, but only a part of this could be told to the committee.
 Writers for the public print are constantly the custodians of secrets involving the honor of men and families and it is seldom that a reputable correspondent will betray a confidence or divulge names and facts where his informant desires to remain in the background.
 Such is exactly the situation of newspaper men called upon by the legislative investigation committee. Nearly every man reporting the legislature has, at various times, been told by members of attempts at bribery and other efforts to influence legislation by undue means. These facts have been given under pledge of secrecy so far as the source of information is concerned, and not a man will give up the name of his informant under such circumstances.
 Many other stories told to the newspaper man are of such a nature that he dare not even hint at the fact, much less give any of the details, but it gives him a basis on which to work for news, and he knows that his information is reliable, even though he can not bring forth any evidence. When the correspondents were called before the committee they testified to enough to show that they had ample grounds for the charges printed and they gave some startling facts relative to the brazen work of the lobby and its corrupting influence. Yet not one of them told of the inside facts that he possessed that were of the most damaging character.

Since the investigation has started,
 members have come forward and testified that open offers to buy votes were made right on the floor of the house during sessions. This is unusual, for the lobbyists generally work more discreetly, but this time they seemed to think that every man has his price and that it was only necessary to make an offer.

All sorts of stories and rumors are afloat about the halls of the legislature and an instance of how information comes to a newspaper man may suffice to illustrate his position. A member, who is the particular friend of some correspondent, tells the scribe in confidence that a certain person has offered him a sum of money for his vote and influence on some legislation. When the member told this he was telling the truth and the correspondent knew it, yet neither he nor the member himself dare make the matter public. The experienced lobbyist is too shrewd to be caught with a piece of cheese, and when he approaches a legislator with a bribe, as detailed above, he is certain to do it when no third party is within hearing. If the member should denounce the would-be briber, he would be laughed at for his pains. The lobbyist would simply deny that he had ever spoken to the member and claim that he was not even interested in the legislation mentioned. The matter would then be resolved into a question of veracity between the two men, the friends of each would take sides, and nothing would result but a scandal without an issue. Now you can see why the newspaper man dares not tell all he knows. Even at the risk of being denounced for making allegations that have no foundation he must keep confidence. Newspaper men have gone to jail before now for not telling things that somebody else wanted to know.

Stories like the above have been told more than once during the present legislature, and as they have always come from members, it is to the members that the committee must look for direct evidence if they really desire to have an honest and searching investigation of the lobby. From members the newspapers have obtained plenty of evidence of attempted corruption, and the committee can do the same.

Crookedness among members is another matter, and it is not likely that any positive evidence along this line will be obtained. If a member accepts a bribe or any other valuable emolument he does not say anything about it. From his actions his colleagues may make inferences, but that is not proof. When a man of small means and almost no property comes to the legislature, stops at the most expensive hotels and goes out with the boys and spends money like an oil king, people wonder how he can do it, but his source of income is not a subject for judicial inquiry.

Besides actual attempts at bribery, the lobbyists are also responsible for much talk regarding corruption of members of the legislature that is entirely unwarranted. This is done for the benefit of the lobbyists alone, especially those who represent no particular interest, but who hang about the assembly like vultures seeking for prey. These fellows watch closely all bills introduced, and are quick to pounce upon any measure that promises profit.
 Sometimes when a matter of considerable local importance to some city or county is up, one of these leeches will go to the parties interested with a story that the bill is sure to be defeated. He will make his tale so strong as to frighten the other party, if they are not up to his tricks. Then they will ask Mr. Lobbyist for advice. With a knowing wink, he will inform them that he can control certain committeemen and others, whose influence is necessary, and before he is through a sum of money will be placed in his hands for use in the legislature.
 The chances are that there is not an iota of opposition to the bill, yet when it is passed Mr. Lobbyist will assure his clients that he did it, and he will hint that he divided up the money with members. As a matter of fact he only placed it to his bank account, yet he allows people to think that he has been buying votes. As the whole thing has been a dangerous transaction his dupes say little about it and never question how their money was used. At the same time they place a very low value on legislative honor. In this way many members have had their good name tarnished when they were entirely innocent of any wrong doing, and perhaps were never even spoken to by the men who claimed to have bought them.

With such influences constantly surrounding the legislature it is no wonder that the air is full of rumors of corruption and jobbery. The truth is bad enough, but these fellows make the situation many times worse.

These are some of the things that the newspaper correspondents have to contend with and they soon become wary of printing stories that they cannot substantiate to their entire satisfaction.
 Sometimes they cannot prove their stories if an investigation is made, but they are true. So, too, many stories that would make sensational news are suppressed, simply because the correspondent does not care to involve innocent parties in a controversy that might damage them in the end.

In the present investigation much has been brought to light showing attempted corruption, at least, and it now lies with the committee to go deeper with the probe among their colleagues.

President Lincoln's birthday was cel-

 among the prominent guests at the ban-

During his address he referred to the dark days of the war when General Mc-Clellan had been driven back to Har-this time," Mr. Wallace said, "I was near Washington and went there with a party to see the president. I noticed that Mr. Lincoln's face was unusually sad. I thought he was sick and was solicitous. I kindly asked him if he was ill, but he said no, he was well enough, but that he was anxiously waiting for the time to arrive when a boat would start for Harrison's Landing; that he wanted to go and persuade General Mc-Clellan not to surrender the army to General Lee."

General Wallace said he had never told this story before except privately to friends.—Chicago Times-Herald.

Newspapers never can print all they know, but in this case enough was made public to create a large sized sensation, and while some members were quaking in their leather covered chairs, others became highly indignant and demanded an investigation. A resolution calling for an inquiry was adopted by the house and a committee was started upon the work of investigation.

First of all the committee called upon some of the correspondents to tell what foundation they had for stories which had been printed. Here developed the newspaper man's peculiar position. Every one of them had plenty of evidence on which to base allegations which had been made, but only a part of this could be told to the committee. Writers for the public print are constantly the custodians of secrets involving the honor of men and families and it is seldom that a reputable correspondent will betray a confidence or divulge names and facts where his informant desires to remain in the background. Such is exactly the situation of newspaper men called upon by the legislative investigation committee. Nearly every man reporting the legislature has, at various times, been told by members of attempts at bribery and other efforts to influence legislation by undue means. These facts have been given under pledge of secrecy so far as the source of information is concerned, and not a man will give up the name of his informant under such circumstances. Many other stories told to the newspaper man are of such a nature that he dare not even hint at the fact, much less give any of the details, but it gives him a basis on which to work for news, and he knows that his information is reliable, even though he can not bring forth any evidence. When the correspondents were called before the committee they testified to enough to show that they had ample grounds for the charges printed and they gave some startling facts relative to the brazen work of the lobby and its corrupting influence. Yet not one of them told of the inside facts that he possessed that were of the most damaging character.

Since the investigation has started, members have come forward and testified that open offers to buy votes were made right on the floor of the house during sessions. This is unusual, for the lobbyists generally work more discreetly, but this time they seemed to think that every man has his price and that it was only necessary to make an offer.

All sorts of stories and rumors are afloat about the halls of the legislature and an instance of how information comes to a newspaper man may suffice to illustrate his position. A member, who is the particular friend of some correspondent, tells the scribe in confidence that a certain person has offered him a sum of money for his vote and influence on some legislation. When the member told this he was telling the truth and the correspondent knew it, yet neither he nor the member himself dare make the matter public. The experienced lobbyist is too shrewd to be caught with a piece of cheese, and when he approaches a legislator with a bribe, as detailed above, he is certain to do it when no third party is within hearing. If the member should denounce the would-be briber, he would be laughed at for his pains. The lobbyist would simply deny that he had ever spoken to the member and claim that he was not even interested in the legislation mentioned. The matter would then be resolved into a question of veracity between the two men, the friends of each would take sides, and nothing would result but a scandal without an issue. Now you can see why the newspaper man dares not tell all he knows. Even at the risk of being denounced for making allegations that have no foundation he must keep confidence. Newspaper men have gone to jail before now for not telling things that somebody else wanted to know.

Stories like the above have been told more than once during the present legislature, and as they have always come from members, it is to the members that the committee must look for direct evidence if they really desire to have an honest and searching investigation of the lobby. From members the newspapers have obtained plenty of evidence of attempted corruption, and the committee can do the same.

Crookedness among members is another matter, and it is not likely that any positive evidence along this line will be obtained. If a member accepts a bribe or any other valuable emolument he does not say anything about it. From his actions his colleagues may make inferences, but that is not proof. When a man of small means and almost no property comes to the legislature, stops at the most expensive hotels and goes out with the boys and spends money like an oil king, people wonder how he can do it, but his source of income is not a subject for judicial inquiry.

Besides actual attempts at bribery, the lobbyists are also responsible for much talk regarding corruption of members of the legislature that is entirely unwarranted. This is done for the benefit of the lobbyists alone, especially those who represent no particular interest, but who hang about the assembly like vultures seeking for prey. These fellows watch closely all bills introduced, and are quick to pounce upon any measure that promises profit. Sometimes when a matter of considerable local importance to some city or county is up, one of these leeches will go to the parties interested with a story that the bill is sure to be defeated. He will make his tale so strong as to frighten the other party, if they are not up to his tricks. Then they will ask Mr. Lobbyist for advice. With a knowing wink, he will inform them that he can control certain committeemen and others, whose influence is necessary, and before he is through a sum of money will be placed in his hands for use in the legislature. The chances are that there is not an iota of opposition to the bill, yet when it is passed Mr. Lobbyist will assure his clients that he did it, and he will hint that he divided up the money with members. As a matter of fact he only placed it to his bank account, yet he allows people to think that he has been buying votes. As the whole thing has been a dangerous transaction his dupes say little about it and never question how their money was used. At the same time they place a very low value on legislative honor. In this way many members have had their good name tarnished when they were entirely innocent of any wrong doing, and perhaps never even spoken to by the men who claimed to have bought them.

With such influences constantly surrounding the legislature it is no wonder that the air is full of rumors of corruption and jobbery. The truth is bad enough, but these fellows make the situation many times worse.

These are some of the things that the newspaper correspondents have to contend with and they soon become wary of printing stories that they cannot substantiate to their entire satisfaction. Sometimes they cannot prove their stories if an investigation is made, but they are true. So, too, many stories that would make sensational news are suppressed, simply because the correspondent does not care to involve innocent parties in a controversy that might damage them in the end.

In the present investigation much has been brought to light showing attempted corruption, at least, and it now lies with the committee to go deeper with the probe among their colleagues.

LINCOLN'S SADNESS.

General Lew Wallace Gives the Cause and Tells a New Story.

President Lincoln's birthday was celebrated at Lebanon, Ind., recently, and among the prominent guests at the banquet was General Lew Wallace.

During his address he referred to the dark days of the war when General McClellan had been driven back to Harrison's Landing by General Lee. "At this time," Mr. Wallace said, "I was near Washington and went there with a party to see the president. I noticed that Mr. Lincoln's face was unusually sad. I thought he was sick and was solicitous. I kindly asked him if he was ill, but he said no, he was well enough, but that he was anxiously waiting for the time to arrive when a boat would start for Harrison's Landing; that he wanted to go and persuade General McClellan not to surrender the army to General Lee."

General Wallace said he had never told this story before except privately to friends. —Chicago Times-Herald.

The Democratic convention was held in city hall last evening, and as soon as Chairman Jeff Forner announced the purpose of the convention the balloting commenced. The contest for mayor was marked, but A. P. Dennis was the favorite.

During intervals the participants became very enthusiastic, and after remaining in session until about 9:30 the convention adjourned. The following ticket was nominated:

Mayor—A. P. Dennis.

Those Suspensions.

Much indignation was expressed in town yesterday when it became known that Mayor Stewart had suspended Officers Cohagan and Johnson, and there are a great many people who would like to know the real reason. They simply smile at the statement that the mayor is anxious to have the officers prove their innocence of having received fees illegally and declare that a much more interesting matter is the cause.

"Every man is innocent until he is proved guilty," said a Republican leader, while another thought it would be a good idea to nominate the officers for good positions on an independent ticket and elect them in spite of the opposition.

MEANS DOUBLE TRACK

All the Way From Rochester to Yellow Creek.

THE OPINION OF AN OFFICIAL

The Cleveland and Pittsburgh Is Taking Up Right of Way and Building Long Sidings, Preparing For the Time When Two Tracks Will Be Needed.

Engineer Thompson and his corps are now working in the vicinity of Smith's Ferry. They are not rushing the work, and are, as one of them said, "doing a complete job."

"It is only the matter of a short time until the Cleveland and Pittsburgh will be double tracked from Rochester to Yellow Creek," said a prominent railroad official who was in the city yesterday. "The company's officials are now taking up right of way, and building long sidings wherever it is possible and they can be used. This work has been done at Vanport, Merrill, Liverpool and other points along the line. If that should be the reason for the East End survey you have one more siding added to the number. When all these sidings are completed it will only be necessary to build a few connections, lift the frogs and the double track is ready for use."

PARENTS' DAY

Will Be Inaugurated at the Schools Next Friday.

Mr. Rayman believes that it will encourage scholars and teachers to see parents at the schools, and a cordial invitation is extended to all.

MEANS DOUBLE TRACK

All the Way From Rochester to Yellow Creek.

THE OPINION OF AN OFFICIAL

The Cleveland and Pittsburg Is Taking Up Right of Way and Building Long Sidings, Preparing For the Time When Two Tracks Will Be Needed.

Engineer Thompson and his corps are now working in the vicinity of Smith's Ferry. They are not rushing the work, and are, as one of them said, "doing a complete job."

"It is only the matter of a short time until the Cleveland and Pittsburg will be double tracked from Rochester to Yellow Creek," said a prominent railroad official who was in the city yesterday. "The company's officials are now taking up right of way, and building long sidings wherever it is possible and they can be used. This work has been done at Vanport, Merrill, Liverpool and other points along the line. If that should be the reason for the East End survey you have one more siding added to the number. When all these sidings are completed it will only be necessary to build a few connections, lift the frogs and the double track is ready for use."

ARRESTED MR. BRADLEY

Charged With Embezzlement
by William Pilgrim.

CAUGHT HIM IN TORONTO

He Disappeared Last Week, and It Was Believed That He Had Gone East—Was a Trusted Employee, and Had Ample Opportunity For Wickedness If He So Desired.

William Bradley, aged 20, was locked up at city hall last night charged by William Pilgrim with embezzling and appropriating funds to his own use. The arrest was made in Toronto yesterday afternoon by Detective Schiffer, and the prisoner was taken to Wellsville where Chief Johnson was waiting. He will be given a hearing this afternoon.

Bradley lived in Second street, and was associated with William Pilgrim at the wharfoat. Last week a large consignment of eggs was sold, and when Mr. Pilgrim sought the proceeds they and Bradley were missing. It was believed at first that he had gone east, but a description of the young man was given the police and the railroad detectives soon located him in Toronto.

Held Responsible.

In his service at the Second Presbyterian church, East End, last night, Rev. J. R. Hosick, in preaching a powerful sermon to Christians, closed with:

"I hold this church responsible for the salvation of this community. I charge thee, tonight, to bring all those within the bounds of this congregation home to glory. Let there be a revival begin here and now, where it ought to begin—in our own hearts." Services will continue each evening this week except Saturday.

Now Dick Wonders.

Richard Burroughs now has a whole some respect for the Pittsburg police.

Last Saturday he witnessed an accident in the city and was held as a witness. He refused to tell his name thinking he might be wanted at some future date, and was considerably surprised when the police sergeant said: "Well, Mr. Burroughs, tell us what you know of this case." He is now trying to find out how the police discovered his name.

To the Public.

One of the most thrilling lectures ever delivered in our town was that given by Rev. L. H. Stewart, chaplain of the Grand Army, at the opera house, on Tuesday night. The speaker has a most pleasant address and is master of description. Even the small boy on the front seat was interested to the last word. The Grand Army post realized a good sum from the lecture—Ashtabula Beacon. At the First M. E. church Thursday evening, March 17. Admission 25c, children 15c. Tickets at Al Ferran's and Bulger's.

Recovered the Dog.

Monday evening O. D. Nice advertised in the NEWS REVIEW that he had lost a valuable black and tan dog, and last evening it was returned to him by an officer who found it in West Market street.

ANN ARBOR, MICH., Feb. 11, 1895.

My Dear Mr. Chickering:—I have examined the piano you referred to, and can truthfully say that I consider it a very fine instrument. The action is delicately adjusted, and is extremely responsive. The scale is even; the tone full and musical. In fact, all the requirements of artistic pianoforte construction have been so conscientiously kept in mind that the result is most satisfactory to the player. I only hope that the industry, good judgment, inventive and constructive skill embodied in the Clifford Piano may be richly rewarded.

The Old Maid's Rally

Grand Opera House, MARCH 21, 22

Under the auspices of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Y. M. C. A.

Ho; men; women; Come and see, How young and sweet Old maids can be.

A catchy program has been planned, Will be made playable "on demand."

This world is badly out of joint, Men are so slow to see the point.

We prink and wink, talk, walk and sprint, But cannot make them take the hint.

So their acuteness to enhance, We give them now one more last chance.

Come, hear the Spinsters' drowning cry, Help; man the life boats ere we dye.

ARRESTED MR. BRADLEY

Charged With Embezzlement
by William Pilgrim.

CAUGHT HIM IN TORONTO

He Disappeared Last Week, and It Was Believed That He Had Gone East—Was a Trusted Employee, and Had Ample Opportunity For Wickedness If He So Desired.

William Bradley, aged 20, was locked up at city hall last night charged by William Pilgrim with embezzling and appropriating funds to his own use. The arrest was made in Toronto yesterday afternoon by Detective Schiffer, and the prisoner was taken to Wellsville where Chief Johnson was waiting. He will be given a hearing this afternoon.

Bradley lived in Second street, and was associated with William Pilgrim at the wharfoat. Last week a large consignment of eggs was sold, and when Mr. Pilgrim sought the proceeds they and Bradley were missing. It was believed at first that he had gone east, but a description of the young man was given the police and the railroad detectives soon located him in Toronto.

To the Public.

We, the undersigned, call on all wheelmen of this city to use their influence and vote for J. E. Bowers for city street commissioner, believing that if elected he will keep the streets in the best possible condition for the use of the bicycle.

Held Responsible.

In his service at the Second Presbyterian church, East End, last night, Rev. J. R. Hosick, in preaching a powerful sermon to Christians, closed with:

"I hold this church responsible for the salvation of this community. I charge thee, tonight, to bring all those within the bounds of this congregation home to glory. Let there be a revival begin here and now, where it ought to begin—in our own hearts." Services will continue each evening this week except Saturday.

Now Dick Wonders.

Richard Burroughs now has a whole some respect for the Pittsburg police.

Last Saturday he witnessed an accident in the city and was held as a witness. He refused to tell his name thinking he might be wanted at some future date, and was considerably surprised when the police sergeant said: "Well, Mr. Burroughs, tell us what you know of this case." He is now trying to find out how the police discovered his name.

To the Public.

One of the most thrilling lectures ever delivered in our town was that given by Rev. L. H. Stewart, chaplain of the Grand Army, at the opera house, on Tuesday night. The speaker has a most pleasant address and is master of description. Even the small boy on the front seat was interested to the last word. The Grand Army post realized a good sum from the lecture—Ashtabula Beacon. At the First M. E. church Thursday evening, March 17. Admission 25c, children 15c. Tickets at Al Ferran's and Bulger's.

Recovered the Dog.

Monday evening O. D. Nice advertised in the NEWS REVIEW that he had lost a valuable black and tan dog, and last evening it was returned to him by an officer who found it in West Market street.

The animal had evidently been penned up by some person who read the advertisement and deemed it best to turn it loose and avoid trouble.

BLAKE'S BILL PASSED

Members of the School Board
Are Out of Office.

REPUBLICANS WILL NOMINATE

At City Hall Tomorrow Evening—The Objection to the Measure Was Cleared Away Yesterday Afternoon, and the House Took the Final Vote.

COLUMBUS, March 16.—[Special]—The house yesterday passed and made into law the Blake bill, providing that the board of education of East Liverpool shall consist of seven members.

WILSON.

It will be readily remembered that the bill in question was introduced early in the session, and East Liverpool at once knew that it was intended for this city. It passed the senate and then went to the house, where it met with no little opposition. It came up again yesterday, and, as the dispatch states, was passed.

The new law ends the terms of office of the present board of education, and makes it necessary for the Republican party to have a new list of at least seven candidates for the primaries next Saturday. With that end in view, Chairman Nellis has called a meeting of the central committee for tomorrow evening at city hall. All persons who are interested are invited to attend the meeting and present names for nomination. These names will be put on the ballot that will be used next Saturday.

The members of the present board of education will retain their positions until their successors are chosen, and there will be no change until after the April election.

It is probable all the Republican members of the board will be candidates for nomination on Saturday and will present their names to the committee tomorrow evening.

The law makes necessary a change in the Prohibition ticket. When the candidates were placed in nomination the old rule was maintained and the selections made by wards. That must now be changed to conform with the law.

THE LECTURE.

Secretary Sully Gave an Interesting Talk.

A fair sized audience heard Secretary Geo. Sully deliver a lecture in the First Presbyterian church last night. His subject was "Sixteen years with the Salvation Army."

Mr. Sully's talk was upon the general work of the army, and the brigades that have organized. They are divided into four sections, and consist of slum work, rescue work, prison work, lodging work. A synopsis of each was given, and their work in large cities was briefly described.

Mr. Sully joined the Salvation Army 17 years ago in Bristol, Conn. He was then a school teacher, and entered the service as a soldier. Promotion followed rapidly, and he was soon a colonel very near to the commander-in-chief. There are but five colonels in the United States. His talk was very interesting.

It will be remembered that Pierpont's accident prevented his presence on the Maine the night of the explosion.

A large amount of freight was handled at the depot yesterday, and during the day more than 15 cars were heavily loaded and sent out. More business was done than on Monday. Receipts have taken a jump.

John S. Goodwin Will Build In Wellsville.

TO BEGIN IN THIRTY DAYS

The Board of Trade Has Been Anxious to Have the Work Started, and the Action Was Taken For the Purpose of Showing It Was Business.

John G. Goodwin is confident that his pottery will be built in Wellsville, and that he will begin work within 30 days.

The board of trade have been anxious to convince the people that the offer made by Mr. Goodwin meant business, and a deposit of $5,000 was made by him with the Silver Banking company. It will remain until after the works have been started.

Mr. Goodwin stated to the News Review this afternoon that he was rapidly getting his affairs in shape, and would commence work on the buildings within the allotted time. He will push the plant to completion as rapidly as possible.

SIXTY PERSONS DEAD.

A Destructive Fire Raged Today In Chicago.

CHICAGO, March 16.—[Special]—It is believed that fully 60 persons have lost their lives in a fierce fire which broke out today at Wabash avenue and Adams street, opposite Wellington's hotel. The buildings were occupied by a number of business firms.

A number of bodies have been recovered.

The Imitative Japanese.

A good story is told by St. Barbe of the imitateness of the Japanese, which is easily credible, for was it not a Japanese who when he was told to make a coat to pattern—the old one being sent—so faithfully did he carry out the order that a rent and darn in one of the tails was carefully executed in the new garment?

"At a certain reception we were asked in morning dress, but knowing people wore their crush theater hats. When we got down to the gunroom, which was devoted to gentlemen's cloaks, the gentleman immediately before me took off his theater hat, crushed it against his breastbone, wrapped it up in his dust cloak and handed it to the Japanese in charge.

"I took off my hat and dust cloak and handed them. To my horror the Jap took hold of my hat by the brim and crushed it against his breastbone as he had seen my predecessor do. Unfortunately that gentleman's hat would not work at first, and he had to use a great deal of force before the springs would fold down. The Japanese therefore saw nothing in my hat's unwillingness to work, but just crushed it and folded my cloak round it.

"When I expostulated, he smiled and presented me with a paper flower—I suppose as a peace offering."

A Phillips Brooks Anecdote.

At the dinner given in his honor in Philadelphia Dr. McVickar, the bishop coadjutor of Rhode Island, told this characteristic anecdote of the late Phillips Brooks: "I remember a few years ago I was traveling with one of the grandest bishops and one of the grandest men of the century. I was sauntering with him from church in Lucerne, in Switzerland, and he said something so boyish and fresh, just as he was ever wont to do. I stopped and looked at him and said, 'Brooks, it seems so strange that you should be a bishop.' He looked at me with almost a startled expression, and he said, 'McVickar, it seems so strange to me that sometimes, when I am putting on my clothes, I have to stop and laugh.' It was just the freshness of that man which always kept him young, and which, I am sure, you will understand as I give it, for I venture to say there has never been such a bishop in our or any other church."

REPUBLICAN MEETING.

The Republican central committee will meet Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock at city hall for the purpose of receiving nominations for the board of education.

TO BUSINESS MEN.
The combination prices of the NEWS REVIEW, advertisement in paper and bills from said advertisement, are cheaper than any other daily paper in the city, while the workmanship, material and inks made use of are incomparably superior to those of would-be competitors. Test the matter. We will prove the truth of our assertion.

BLAKE'S BILL PASSED

Members of the School Board
Are Out of Office.

REPUBLICANS WILL NOMINATE

At City Hall Tomorrow Evening—The Objection to the Measure Was Cleared Away Yesterday Afternoon, and the House Took the Final Vote.

COLUMBUS, March 16.—[Special]—The house yesterday passed and made into law the Blake bill, providing that the board of education of East Liverpool shall consist of seven members.

WILSON.

It will be readily remembered that the bill in question was introduced early in the session, and East Liverpool at once knew that it was intended for this city. It passed the senate and then went to the house, where it met with no little opposition. It came up again yesterday, and, as the dispatch states, was passed.

The new law ends the terms of office of the present board of education, and makes it necessary for the Republican party to have a new list of at least seven candidates for the primaries next Saturday. With that end in view, Chairman Nellis has called a meeting of the central committee for tomorrow evening at city hall. All persons who are interested are invited to attend the meeting and present names for nomination. These names will be put on the ballot that will be used next Saturday.

The members of the present board of education will retain their positions until their successors are chosen, and there will be no change until after the April election.

It is probable all the Republican members of the board will be candidates for nomination on Saturday and will present their names to the committee tomorrow evening.

The law makes necessary a change in the prohibition ticket. When the candidates were placed in nomination the old rule was maintained and the selections made by wards. That must now be changed to conform with the law.

THE LECTURE.

Secretary Sully Gave an Interesting Talk.

A fair sized audience heard Secretary Geo. Sully deliver a lecture in the First Presbyterian church last night. His subject was "Sixteen years with the Salvation Army."

Mr. Sully's talk was upon the general work of the army, and the brigades that have organized. They are divided into four sections, and consist of slum work, rescue work, prison work, lodging work. A synopsis of each was given, and their work in large cities was briefly described.

Mr. Sully joined the Salvation Army 17 years ago in Bristol, Conn. He was then a school teacher, and entered the service as a soldier. Promotion followed rapidly, and he was soon a colonel very near to the commander-in-chief. There are but five colonels in the United States. His talk was very interesting.

WILL GET THE LIMIT.

Winnie Mercer Is Again a Lucky Boy.

A morning paper says: "Winnie Mercer, the star of the Washington pitching corps, who has already signed his contract for next season, is said to be the highest salaried pitcher in the National League. He will receive the salary limit next season, along with a big extra bonus."

The Philadelphia club are again making efforts to secure the release of Dickey Padden from the Pittsburg team, but he is deemed too valuable a man to sell.

Pierpont Is In Key West.

James McBane, of Sixth street, yesterday afternoon received a letter from a sister of Sergeant Charles Pierpont, stating that he had left California and is now in Key West awaiting the arrival of the Massachusetts. Pierpont is known to a number of persons in this place. His arm is now in good condition and he will fill the position of first sergeant on the Massachusetts.

It will be remembered that Pierpont's accident prevented his presence on the Maine the night of the explosion.

A large amount of freight was handled at the depot yesterday, and during the day more than 15 cars were heavily loaded and sent out. More business was done than on Monday. Receipts have taken a jump.

Peter Brown, of Lisbon, and Miss Berry, of Salem, won second prize, two pig livers. Miss Frances Dillard and John Mosby, of Lisbon, were the best dressed people there. After the dance there was some trouble about the funds, and the Beaver Falls orchestra are still here looking for their pay.
